ABOUT DRAGON HUNTER PART 1

As the title says, Dragon Hunter is about people who hunt dragons. I was reading a book with a subplot about tiger hunters and I thought, "That's all!" However, I figured tigers were too ordinary and wanted something more imaginative. I was also looking for something iconic and Korean, and what I came up with was dragons! That was my inspiration for creating Dragon Hunter. "I'll work on this later for sure," I told myself after making some notes. That was three years ago when I was working on another series.

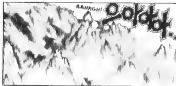

Anyway, allow me to clarify a few things about the concept.

Dragons are not the main characters in the story and you will quickly come to understand how they appear to form the relationships between Dragon Hunters.

The story is set during a time before the Three States of Korea (editor's note: circa 500 A.D.) when the country consisted of many different smaller countries and kingdoms. However, I did not really do my research and I just chose to create a world based on an image of Korea that I loved. More than anything, Studio Redline created this world. That's why you see houses on wheels we call "mobile units." These houses appear at the beginning of this volume and don't have a big part. I was a bit disappointed that I couldn't describe the mobile unit properly in the story, but I guess it will have a bigger role soon.

In Asia, dragons are holy animals that exist in the imaginary world. But dragons really exist in the world of this comic book. The Asian dragon is a creature with tiger-like eyes, deer-like antlers on its head, a snake-like body, etc. The common design of the dragon in Asia is a fantastic combination of different real animals. However, there are many types of Western dragons. So, for this comic book I fused the Asian dragon and different Western species. I did a lot of research on dragons but will leave you readers to discover what I found and put in the story.

It is a traditional Chinese number with many meanings, making 999 a favorite among gift givers for the sole purpose of making money (the word for money in Chinese is pronounced jiu) come from a number 9. It is also a favorite of the Chinese for birthdays (for example, 9999 means not only that the carrier, mother or birthday person is 99 years old, but also that the birthday person is healthy and happy).

Industry: When I first landed Real Chimp, he had a long (prompt) response. He liked the design of his appearance, was changed to the present design, which is more human-like. He and all the others for the animal show.

Wang, like other great things and persons, mysteriously disappeared to somewhere else. His life was ended when he was 30 years old. It is said that he was the favorite of the emperor. He was suddenly dropped into Wang, and Wang, he is also a person with great power and his ability is much stronger. He has been considered a great person and is also a great person.

She is a superhuman character, strong and a great fighter and also not make any mistakes when she fights. She is a female character. She joining Sam's group's company, she argued with him about almost everything. She is female and a kind character at the beginning, but I believe her mind will be bigger as a female one. Personally, she is an American character, different from Americans in

Who is Miyuki? Well, she's not. She could have been a typical character because her brother was a famous actor, so at a young age, Aradysel drew her into the world of the theater. She was a dragon tamer. That's why she likes Sora. (Sora, the prince that saves her when young Aradysel was almost lost, is cast as a hero.) She was supposed to be a heroine, after Miyuki-like a death. However, Aradysel is a girl, but a heroine must be strong. Not because of the change in plot, I feel sorry for her.

I spent so much time creating the character and choosing a name for him, but his plot ended up small. He has many more to see, but he will be very important, even in future stories. Please say hi to the characters, the girl taking the "role of Sora" has been a name, but it is too early to reveal it.

meaning "leader" or "boss")

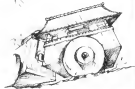

The character is an ally. She started as an extra and became an important character. Her character supports her. She has a lot of personality. She is my absolute favorite character after Meng-Nan. There will be a story to what happened between Yo-Chun and Meng-Nan in future episodes. Please stay tuned for it.

The mobile unit is made for traveling dragons. It is mostly made of wood, but it is not that easy to destroy. It operates on a steam-powered engine that is made of gears in the inside and outside. It is a little bit more powerful than the other mobile units. Some people who have higher social status have mobile units that are more powerful than the others. It is not perfect.

This is one of the original designs for Seur-Chong. He has a thin body and long pointed ears makes him look like a Japanese samurai. So I named him this way. I also considered drawing him to spend too much time in an unusual design.

IN THE NEXT VOLUME OF DRAGON HUNTER

MYUNG-HO'S LIFE HANGS BY A THREAD IN THE NEXT EXCITING VOLUME OF DRAGON HUNTER. GAECHANG-NIM AND RU-AHN FLEE KAYA, AND A DIFFICULT CHOICE MUST BE MADE IN ORDER TO SAVE THE AILING MYUNG-HO. MEANWHILE, AS SEUR-CHONG PURSUES THE HEAD OF THE LOCAL CHAMJOO GANG, HE FINDS HIMSELF CONFRONTING A FACE FROM HIS PAST. BUT IS THE MYSTERIOUS FIGURE A FRIEND OR FOE?
